The Bronte Family: Achievements and Tribulations (an OASIS program)

In recognition of Emily Bronte's 200th Birthday, join us for a special presentation focusing on the lives and work of the fascinating Bronte family. Their written works include two of the most read books in English—Jane Eyre and Wuthering Heights. The presentation will cover their inspiration, love lives, and trials of grief and loneliness in addition to their poetry, artwork, Charlotte's letters and Branwell's tragic life. The presentation is adapted from Karen Kenyon's biography, The Bronte Family - Passionate Literary Geniuses.
